WONDERFUL
Blood-Purifying Effect
—OF—
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mr. Charles Stephenson, a well-known Railway Employee at Kalapoi, New Zealand, writes:

"About ten years ago, while engaged in shunting, my foot caught between the rails, and my leg was fractured below the knee. It healed in time, but I have been troubled ever since with swollen veins, and have been obliged, at times, to wear a bandage. About a year ago it became much worse, and I feared I should be obliged to give up my work. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I did so, and after taking four bottles the swelling disappeared, and I have not been troubled with it since."

WITH THE FIRST REGIMENT

"ALL SET" FOR THE DANCE
SCHEDULED FOR TONIGHT.

Decorations and Music—Flags—Refreshments—Meetings of H and A—One Shooting Match—B Talks to D.

This is the evening for the Regimental ball at the Drill Shed. It will begin at 8 o'clock sharp. Professor Berger's orchestra will be present and will furnish music. The work of decorating began yesterday and has continued during today. Hawaiian and American flags predominate in national colors. Two large Hawaiian flags are suspended across the entrance to the hall, and all the company rooms are decorated in the same colors.

The orchestra tonight will occupy a position on the stage. Arrangements have been made to use all the footlights. The stage will also be decorated with flags and evergreens. All the company rooms will be used for the reception of guests. As the crowd will be so very large, refreshments will likely be passed around in place of being served from tables.

Members of the Regiment were not sent individual invitations because it is their affair. Every soldier has an interest in the success of the function and should be there and do his utmost to give all the guests of the Regiment a pleasant time. While it is desirable that Company members should appear in uniform, the matter is left entirely to their discretion. Anything—uniform, evening dress or "Sunday clothes"—goes. It is certain the hall will be a great success.

Company H held a short business meeting Thursday evening and appropriated $25 for the ball to be given by the Regiment this evening.

A had a spirited drill under Capt. Paul Smith last evening. There was a fair turnout. After drill a short meeting was held at which routine matters were disposed of.

There will be no meetings of any of the companies this evening.

Charles Ramsay will be court-martialed for not attending a meeting of the officers Wednesday evening.

Company F with the police is the only match shoot it was possible to arrange for tomorrow.

The Company B shooting team requests The Star to say to D that they will accept at any time a challenge for a ten-shot match.

In the absence of Minister Cooper, Attorney General W. O. Smith will act as the official head of the military department.

That was an excellent eight-second salute fired by the shore battery to Minister Cooper Thursday morning.

There is one medicine which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severe pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed, and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment and bound over the seat of pain, will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable, however, for rheumatism. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the prompt relief from pain which it affords, and it can be depended upon to effect a complete cure. For sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for H. I.

POSTAGE ON WEDDING CAKE.

Miscarriage of an Attempt to Economize
Prevents a Marriage.

"Do tell me all about Nell's wedding," said the girl in the crash suit. "Did it all go off well? And how?" "Oh, beautifully!" cried the girl in the white frock. "My dress was perfectly lovely, my gloves were an ideal fit, and my hair kept its curl as well as if I was only attending an old maids' tea party."

"How nice! But tell me about Nell. Was she?" "She was horrid. Actually wanted me to help her dress for the ceremony! As if I hadn't my bridesmaid's toilet to think of. I am afraid that dear Nell is too selfish to make a really good wife."

"Then she will naturally have an unselfish husband, dear?" "Perhaps so. Oh, it was delightful to walk up the aisle feeling that every eye was fixed on!"

"Yes, I know. But tell me, how did Nell get through the ceremony?"

"I really don't know. My mind was full of the one awful thought that I was standing with my back to all those people, while there was no telling but that my gown was crumpled after that long drive to the church."

"Oh, probably it was all right. Was Nell's gown?" "And wasn't it too bad that Harold was out of town and unable to see me in my lovely new dress!"

"Oh, well, you can send him a photograph."

"Not unless he apologizes."

"For what, going away? But then, even an engaged man must attend to business."

"It wasn't only that. It was his subsequent behavior. You see, I wanted him to share some of the festivities, so I sent him a box of wedding cake. You should have seen the letter I got in return."

"But perhaps it disagreed with him." "It wasn't that. You know, I thought it would be nice to write him a sweet little note and slip it in the bottom of the cake box, so that when he had eaten it all he would have a pleasant surprise."

"Good gracious, do you mean to say that you gave the box away and never knew?"

"No, I don't. The—well, the truth is that these horrid, mean postoffice employees actually opened the box and found the note! Oh, how I do despise such prying inquisitiveness! Not satisfied with that they!"

"Goodness, can't they send you to jail for violating the postal laws?"

"No, they can't. But they actually made Harold pay letter postage on the box before they would give it to him."

Four square inches of wedding cake cost him just $1.50, and now he—he says that he is afraid that I am not economical enough to make a good wife for a poor man! After I had put the note in the box to save extra postage too!"—Chicago Times-Herald.

GLASS DUST.
A fabric of beautiful appearance is to be put upon the market—an improvement upon the waterproof-coated materials rendered thus impervious by treatment with the well known India rubber and other solutions. The improvement in this case, says the London Telegraph, consists in giving the coated surface of such goods a dressing formed by a film of powder made by reducing glass to an impalpable dust and finely sieved so as to remove all crystallized appearance, this coating giving to the surface treated a fine, soft, silky and luminous effect.

SURE TO WIN.
The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world. Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently cures. It is the One True Blood Purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.
